

ACCESSING SERVICES AND SUPPORTS VIDEO SUMMARY

The Accessing Services and Supports video centers around a discussion between two professionals about the need for supports and services in providing a supportive and healing environment for children who have experienced trauma, loss or separation. The video highlights the importance of staying engaged and continuously seeking out supports and services. The video also highlights some strategies that parents who are fostering or adopting can utilize to stay engaged and connected with services.